

3rd Conference on Electronic Democracy EDEM 2009, September 6 – 8, 2009

Conference Venue:

University of Economics and Business Vienna
Augasse 2-6
1090 Vienna

Program

Sunday, September 6: Social Program

Monday, September 7

9:00 – 13:00 Conference Registration
Some keynotes will be held in German, simultaneous translation facilities will be available.

Opening Session, Festsaal (Alexander Prosser)

- 9:30 Welcome, introductory remarks
Alexander Prosser, WU
- 9:40 Welcome address from the Austrian Computer Society: E-Governance - the challenges ahead
Roland Traunmüller, OCG, University of Linz
- 10:00 eVoting at the Social Elections in the Federal Republic of Germany
Hans-Eberhard Urbaniak, Federal Commissioner for the Social Insurance Elections, Germany
- 10:20 The Demise of Electronic Government
Viktor Mayer-Schönberger, Lee Kuan Yew School of Public Policy, Singapur
- 10:40 Coffee Break

Plenary I, Festsaal (Roland Traunmüller)

- 11:15 The Use of Information Technology in Support of General Elections with Conventional Ballots
Alexander Leiningen-Westerburg, Siemens IT Solutions and Services
- 11:45 eParticipation as a pre-requisite for mature eGovernment
Matt Poelmans, Burgerlink
- 12:15 The ruling of the German Constitutional Court on eVoting and its technical consequences
Alexander Prosser, WU
- 12:45 Lunch Break

eConsultation I, Festsaal (Jeremy Millard)Demo Session I, UR 1 (Matt Poelmans)

- | | |
|--|---|
| 14:00 eDemocracy Design: Citizen Consultation on Contentious Issues
Mary Griffiths, University of Adelaide 14:30 Citizen Consultation from Above and Below: The Australian Perspective
Axel Bruns, Queensland Univ. of Technology
Jason Wilson, University of Wollongong 15:00 Electronic support for the legislative consultation process: Theoretical concepts and practical requirements
Günther Schefbeck, Austrian Parliament 15:30 Coffee Break | BürgerForum Europa – a citizens' dialogue about the future of the European Union
Hans Hagedorn, Simone Gerdesmeier.
zebralog.de Transparency and auditability in eVoting - a case study
Robert Müller-Török, Inteco, Landshut A Public Source Solution for Independent Recounts in eVoting
Alexander Scheidl, WU |
|--|---|

Participatory eGovernment I, Festsaal (Nele Leosk)Workshop I, Room 2.22

- | | |
|---|--|
| 16:00 From Representative to Digital Democracy: Using the Internet to Increase Citizen Participation in Government
Michael Milakovich, University of Miami 16:30 A configurable architecture for e-participatory budgeting support
César Alfaro, Javier Gómez,
Jose M. Lavín, Juan J. Moleró
Universidad Rey Juan Carlos, Madrid 17:00 E-democracy 2.0: involving citizen anyway and anywhere in Emilia-Romagna (Italy)
Sabrina Franceschini, Regione Emilia-Romagna
Roberto Zarro, Università di Bergamo | Social networking tools and widgets to promote or expand eParticipation initiatives Organised by:
Ella Taylor-Smith, Edinburgh Napier University
Ralf Lindner, Fraunhofer ISI |
|---|--|

19:00 Conference DinnerTuesday, September 8*Plenary II, Festsaal (Ella Taylor-Smith)

- 9:00 eDemocracy and eGovernment
Christian Rupp, Federal Chancellery, Vienna
- 9:20 Web 2.0 as Base for Democracy 2.0
Peter Parycek, Danube University
- 9:40 Re-thinking eDemocracy - The challenges of existing concepts and future approaches
Blaz Golob, Centre for eGovernance Development for South East Europe, Ljubljana
- 10:00 Break

eParticipation I, Festsaal (David Newman)Workshop II, Room 2.22

10:15 Novel Features in the Council of Europe Recommendation on eDemocracy
Thomas Buchsbaum, Austrian Ministry of Foreign and European Affairs

European eParticipation Study: Capturing Good Practices

10:45 Supporting Argument in e-Democracy
Dan Cartwright, Katie Atkinson, Trevor Bench-Capon, Univ. of Liverpool

Organised by:
Ann Macintosh, Leeds University
Jeremy Millard, Danish Technological Institute

11:15 Self-Efficacy as a Factor in Evaluation of e-Petitions
Peter Cruickshank, Colin Smith, Edinburgh Napier University

11:45 Coffee Break

eVoting I, Festsaal (Mary Griffiths)Workshop III, Room 2.22

12:00 Project Management in eVoting
Robert Müller-Török, Inteco, Landshut

Participatory planning: conflicts, context and cooperation

12:30 A PKI-based protocol for secure and practical online elections
Lucie Langer, Axel Schmidt, Melanie Volkamer, Johannes Buchmann, TU Darmstadt

Organised by:
Daniel van Lerberghe, Dan Jellinek, Rolf Luehrs, Bengt Feil, pep-net

13:00 New technologies for remote observation and verification of electronic votes: foundations of a better e-voting system
S. Ablameyko, N. Kalosha, D. Lipen, V. Lipen, National Academy of Sciences of Belarus

13:30 Lunch Break

eVoting II, Festsaal (Ralf Lindner)Workshop IV, Room 2.22

14:30 Don't jump over acceptability before implementing e-voting: Social acceptability and its conditions of e-participation
Steve Schwarzer, Cornelia Wallner, SORA, Vienna

Values and evaluating eParticipation

Organised by
David Newman, Queen's University Belfast

15:00 Paper Records and Electronic Audits: A Step Towards Regaining Voter Trust
Mohammed Awad, Ernst L. Leiss, Univ. of Houston

15:30 Deliberation and Collaboration in the Policy Process: A Web 2.0 approach
Klaus Petrik, University of Queensland

16:00 Coffee Break

eParticipation II, Festsaal (Peter Cruickshank)

Usability and Accessibility I, Room 2.22
(Axel Bruns)

- 16:15 Making Sense of Gov 2.0 Strategies: "No Citizens, No Party"
Enrico Ferro, Francesco Molinari, Istituto Superiore Mario Boella
- 16:45 eParticipation applications requirements and recommendations
Sabrina Scherer, Stefan Ventzke, Univ. of Koblenz
- 17:15 Political Education and e-Participation: 'Technology, Politics and Culture'
Ursula Maier-Rabler, Christina Neumayer, Univ. of Salzburg
- Process Support for Increasing Participation in eParticipation
Edith Maier, Ulrich Reimer, University of Applied Sciences St. Gallen
- egosta: E-Government-Stakeholder-Beteiligung
Silke Weiß, Josef Makolm, Austrian Ministry of Finance

Concluding Session, Festsaal (Alexander Prosser)

- 17:45 Vienna Chamber of Commerce and Industry Best Paper Award
Concluding Remarks and EDEM 2010, Peter Parycek, Danube University